

Overview

POINT Inc. (People and Organizations in North Toronto), one of the United Way of Toronto Member Agencies, is a planning and information agency that has been serving the North Toronto community for 46 years. Our organization continues to develop social services and fill gaps. We have a new strategic plan that will guide POINT over the next three years and we welcome new ideas in implementing our future plans. Our office is located in the North Toronto Memorial Community Centre, 200 Eglinton Avenue West.

We are looking for people to serve as volunteers on the POINT Board of Directors and supporting committees. Anyone who lives, works, studies in North Toronto is eligible.

Our Vision

That all residents of North Toronto/Midtown have access to community programs, services and support when they need it.

Our Mission

To provide or facilitate the delivery of services to address unmet community needs of those who live, work and study in North Toronto, through information, education and advocacy.
